Finances. It has been agreed to send £75 for the village hall in lieu of a workday shift at the Christmas fair.

Plans for Hand Bell(s) (2022) It was agreed to hold a Hand bell on Saturday June 25th 2023. This will be a 'Rolling Hand Bell'. Break up from 4pm to 6pm at Hazelfield. Music will be provided by the Ashes, Steve Brooks, and possible new other band depending on availability (IH/JA).

It will take the form of a bring your own picnic and drinks with Northern Ice cream van for dessert (CS). People will be encouraged to take home their rubbish.

We will charge entrance of £3 with children free (Under 12yrs/s). Possibly along people as they enter or a wristband. Car parking on the field. Bring your own chairs.

We will also run a raffle with donated prizes by local businesses from Hampstone etc (DL). We will ask the Players about borrowing their contactless payment machines.

We will also ask John Fuller if he will do the bunting

We will also seek sponsorship for the band (IH)

We will need an event licence (JA)

Child safe fun events will happen early in the evening eg welly wanging, sacks, penalties games, etc

Need to divide Hazelfield into each track with Bowls club (JA)

We will need a risk assessment (IH)

We will use the auto toilets and washbasins in a pump set

Costings so far: Ashes £750 pump out £200 Publicity ?
